

Video Sharing Website Comparison Chart

NOTE: Comparison chart was created based on available information and features are subject to change.

	YouTube youtube.com	Viddler viddler.com	Vimeo vimeo.com	UStream ustream.tv	Blip.tv blip.tv
Description	Video sharing website where users can post, view, rate and comment on videos.	Video sharing site that incorporates blogging, photos & more. Non commercial accounts are free. Free videos are kept on the site for 30 days.	Video sharing website where users can post, view, like and comment on videos. No commercial content is allowed.	A site dedicated to the live streaming of video on a variety of topics. It also has an interactive component where users can ask questions.	A site dedicated to sharing original web video series. Showcased series are handpicked by editors and producers can get a share of ad revenues.
File Size Limit	2 GB	2 GB storage limit for free account	50 MB/week	Not specified	1 GB
Length Limit	15 minutes	Not specified	Not specified	No specified	Not specific
Commenting	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
Create Video Online	✓	✓	No	✓	No
Edit Video	✓	No	No	No	No
Live Streaming	No	No	No	✓	No
Privacy	Videos can be public, so anyone can view them. They can be unlisted, so anyone with a link can see them. Or they can be private, so only those invited can see them.	Videos can be public, so everyone can view them. They can also be shared, so only selected people can see it. Or they can be private, so only the user can see them.	Can set account to public or private. Or users can choose to share videos with contacts or people they choose only.	Videos can be public or password protected.	Pro accounts can hide videos, set passwords and time releases.
Social Media Integration	Facebook, Twitter, Reader, Orkut, MySpace	Twitter and Flickr	Facebook and Twitter	Facebook and Twitter	Facebook and Twitter